FAMILY OF THE PROPHET (SAW)

NOV. 21, 2015

Can you really love someone you know nothing about?

The Messenger of Allah (SAW) is beloved to Allah and object of our admiration and love. His family, those whom he loved, then, should be dearer to us than our own families. His noble and supportive uncles, his beloved daughters, his beautiful grandchildren: what do we know about them and how do we feel about them? Do we love them as we do our own? Can we say they are near and dear to us as our own relatives, our own children, our own grandchildren? Come join us MCCSD for an event that's not to be missed!

Let us embark on this journey to learn about the family of the best man to walk this earth!

Session 1:

Loving them and their rights over us

Session 2:

Who are they?

Session 3:

How did the Prophet (SAW) love them?
